Glenhardie Clubhouse Dress Code

Glenhardie strives to be a relaxed and inviting club for all members. We have adopted a dress code that is befitting our casual yet professional culture. Please adhere to it. Appropriate country club casual dress is required at all times, in all areas. Not permitted: short shorts, muscle shirts, inappropriate t-shirts, swim attire, etc. Also, all caps and hats worn by men must be removed while in the clubhouse. Jackets are encouraged for gentlemen dining on Saturday night in the Main Dining Room from Labor Day to Memorial Day, otherwise a collared shirt is required. Appropriate denim is permitted in all areas of the Clubhouse at all times. Bathing suits and swim attire are permitted only in the pool and adjoining terrace areas.

Members or their guests violating these rules may be warned or asked to leave the premises. Please advise your guests of our policy. Staff members are authorized by the Board of Directors to uphold the dress code.

CONDITIONS: Please Read

- Guests must be accompanied by a member and each Guest is permitted a maximum of four (4) visits per year for golf, pool and tennis.
- Account statements are due upon receipt and members whose accounts are 30 days past billing date shall be charged a 1.5% late fee.
- Your credit card will be charged automatically if payment has not been received 90 days after billing date. If the card on file is out of date or denied for any reason your membership shall result in suspension of all club privileges until your account is paid in full.
- All Membership dues and fees are payable for an entire calendar year. (January 1 to December 31)
- Resignations prior to the end of a calendar year do not remove a member's obligation to pay dues, charges, assessments and fees for the entire year. Membership may be terminated only upon written notice to the business office.
